JOB DESCRIPTION
USA WORK & TRAVEL PROGRAM

Breadsticks

Atlantic City, New Jersey

Adaptation is not always easy, working is hard, but it is important to remember that you are temporarily in the United States for a new learning experience.

The key to a successful program is to stay positive and be flexible.

Participants who accept the position, must be willing to work in hot kitchens, near grill and ovens.

Participants should have manual dexterity sufficient to chop, mix, blend, whip a variety of foods. Participants will come into contact with sharp knives.

Participants who accept the position, must be willing to remove trash.

Participants who accept the position, will come into contact with boiling liquids, hot oil and hot pans.

Participants who accept the position, must be willing to clean. Including bathrooms.

Participants who accept this position, need their Social Security to begin processing. Students should be prepared with enough money to cover expenses for one month.

Participants who accept the position, must be able to work with pork.

Participants who accept the position, must not have any food allergies.

The concept of time plays a great role in American culture. Being late consistently makes you unreliable. Come to work as scheduled and on time. Good attendance ensures your hours.

No job, or hours at a job, can be 100% guaranteed. Regardless of what your work contract states, there is always a possibility that you will work more or less hours. Expect lower hours during the first two weeks of training.

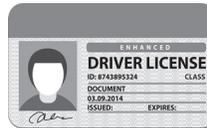

Second jobs must be approved by CHI prior to starting. Your CHI coordinator will help you with this process. Your second job can not conflict with your primary job. If you have a conflict, your primary employer will not guarantee 32 hours.

Some work days will be slower than others. It is common practice for employees to be sent home early if business does not allow for a full staff.

Participants should have the experience and knowledge necessary to deal with the potential dangers of life in an urban environment. Pick pockets operate in this area.

Open a bank account and get a debit card. Do not carry cash, valuables or your documents with you. Bring an alternative ID to carry. Keep your passport and documents stored safely at your housing.

Participants should use common sense. stay with a partner or friend, especially at night. It is recommended participants let a friend know where they are.

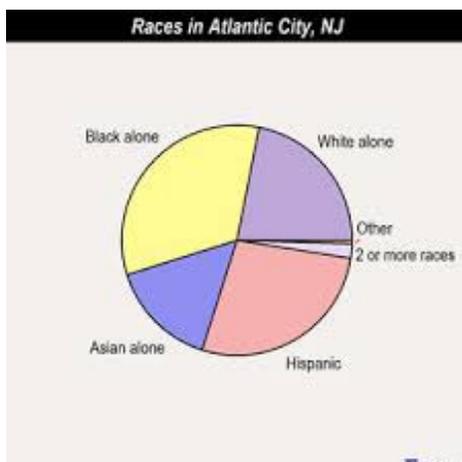

Bicycle riders with helmets had an 85 percent reduction in their risk of head injury and an 88 percent reduction in their risk of brain injury. If you ride a bicycle in the US, wear a helmet.

You must arrange your own housing. We recommend you search for your housing prior to arrival. Be prepared with an arrival plan. Do not arrive late at night.

A security deposit protects landlords from the cost associated with; parties, loud noise, damage, dirt, trash, unpaid rent, or utility bills. Participants who leave housing before the end of their program will NOT see any portion of their security deposit returned. Your refund is conditional, CHI coordinators can not negotiate a return.

Participants should be aware the United States is a melting pot. You will come into contact with all kinds of people and ways of life. All ages, shapes and sizes, levels of wealth, backgrounds, religions, sexual preferences, and ethnicities.
